CODE OF ETHICS

The National American Eskimo Dog Association of Canada subscribes to the following Code of Ethics:

1. Maintenance of optimum health care through proper vaccinations, worming and veterinary care as needed.
2. Planning each litter with care and only breeding dogs of sound body and temperament.
3. Keeping all official registration papers and contracts in accordance with the rules and regulations of the registering body.
4. Never selling dogs to pet stores or commercial dog brokers, nor selling or giving dogs for scientific research, or for any kind of promotional activity such as a prize in a raffle.
5. Obtaining a fair price for dogs because time and money has been invested to ensure quality pets and show dogs.
6. Good sportsmanship in the conformation/obedience ring/ or any other dog related activity is expected.

I/We hereby agree to abide by the constitution, by-laws and Code of Ethics set forth by the National American Eskimo Dog Association of Canada. NAEDAC has the right to decline any membership application that does not meet its requirements.
